One of the leading healthcare organizations across the country. Teaming up with premier nephrologists globally, they champion the cultivation of diverse and highly skilled clinical operational teams.

GOAL

Implement specialized technology talent to enhance the capabilities of the cybersecurity team

CHALLENGES

- Identify robust talent to support Chief Information Security Officer
- Ensure candidates had a background in healthcare, while also displaying a history of technical experience

OUTCOME

We have successfully filled five crucial roles, which support the Chief Information Security Officer. Due to this success, we are currently working on further expanding the technology team through additional assignments. Our proven track record of outstanding performance has earned us this exclusive opportunity. We have garnered referrals in various sectors, including Data & Analytics, IT Operations, Quality Assurance, and Application Development. Currently, we are managing 12 active orders within the technology space, a testament to our growing presence and reputation in the industry.
