

LaSalle Network Completes 5-month Product & Engineering Staffing Project Within 3 Months

Real Estate

Direct Hire

Technology: Product & Engineering

One of the fastest growing real estate organizations in the United States. They are a provider of coworking spaces, including physical and virtual shared spaces.

GOAL

Establish a prominent presence in Chicago by assembling a robust engineering team comprised of highly skilled professionals from the local market

CHALLENGES

- Undergoing brand transformation and rebuilding brand reputation
- Attracting top engineering talent to supports transition to a software-centric approach

OUTCOME

LaSalle Network successfully assembled a diverse team, including women with engineering leadership experience. The assignment, initially set for five months, was completed ahead of schedule, with eight hires made within just three months.

8

Placements

100%

Retention rate

30d

Avg. time to fill

This organization entrusted LaSalle Network to fill these roles due our consultative approach and the high quality of candidates we provided, particularly valuing those with significant experience from major tech companies.